

AP Literature Summer Assignment

Assigned work due on Day 1 of class

“Any fish can swim near the surface, but it takes a great whale to go down stairs five miles or more.”

---Herman Melville

- 📖 I'd like you to read some passages from of any version of the Bible and complete the attached note guide and bring it to Day 1 of class. Regardless of your religious beliefs, the stories of the Bible are woven into most of Western literature. This is critical background to meaningful literary analysis. Biblical allusions and symbolism are in much of the literature we will study. Bibles are pretty easy to come by and available online as well.
- 📖 We won't have much time for creative writing, but a creative voice is important in writing. Fun is also essential in learning. So, I'd like you write a short story or poem (i.e. work of fiction shorter than a novel) that is a reflection of your reading of the Bible. Take a character or verse or story as your inspiration. Have fun with this! Remember, I'm looking for your creative spirit here, not an analytic work.
- 📖 Read Chapters 7 and 14 of How to Read Literature Like a Professor by Thomas Foster. I recommend that you purchase or borrow this. It's really great stuff that will help you make your way through challenging literature. (For copyright reasons, I can't attach this file.)
- 📖 Optional: If you want to get ahead a bit, bone up on your Greek mythology, also a great source of allusion in literature. Bullfinch or Edith Hamilton are the definitive authors but you can use any resource.
- 📖 Questions? E-mail me at eblackwood@stanwood.wednet.edu

Looking forward to seeing you in September!
