

World Language Credit for Proficiency

Testing dates: April 18-21, 2017
Registration March 22- April 12

Can you fluently read, write, speak and understand/converse in a language other than English?

If you are a student at Stanwood or Lincoln High School, you can earn high school credit in a world language by successfully passing district approved assessments and demonstrating your language proficiency in listening, speaking, reading and writing in that language. Assessments are available for many different world languages.

Students can earn proficiency based high school credits, may meet the world language credit requirements and may qualify for the Seal of Biliteracy on their diploma.
