Quiz 1

For College Board

(Must have a college board account. If you have ever registered or taken an SAT you have a college board account. You also likely have a college board acct if you took any AP Class last year. If not you can create but you cannot use your school student email.)

SAQ Practice. This is NOT an essay, just a two sentence response to what the prompt asks. Choose either question and submit along with the other assignment for feedback (Available in GC)
